A fresh risk waiver is required each year. Each member and each spouse/partner must sign the waiver. A parent or guardian signs the risk waiver on behalf of their nominated child or children listed above.

NSC Acknowledgement of Risk

In consideration for the New South Wales Nordic Ski Club Inc. ("NSC") allowing me to attend and participate in NSC trips, I advise and confirm that: I understand and acknowledge:

- skiing is a potentially hazardous and dangerous activity, which may cause physical injury or death;
- those risks include but are not limited to hypothermia, dehydration, sunburn, muscle strain, fatigue from travelling long distances and/or carrying heavy loads for long periods over steep terrain, injury from colliding with rocks or trees or walking or skiing on slippery and/or uneven surfaces, being hit by rocks, snow and/or ice from above, falling from cliffs steep slopes, exposure to cold and/or bad weather including wind, rain, snow, blizzards and white-out, being delayed or disoriented by weather conditions, injury to or fatigue of others and/or equipment failure or failure to use equipment correctly;
- my participation in NSC activities constitutes my voluntary assumption of the risks inherent in cross-country skiing and the related activities of the NSC;
- I will endeavour to ensure that any NSC activity which I undertake is within my capabilities and that I will carry food, water and equipment appropriate for that NSC activity;
- I will be responsible for my own safety when participating in NSC activities; and
- I will notify the NSC trip coordinator of any medical or other conditions which may affect my participation in the NSC activity.

I release the NSC, its Committee, officers and trip coordinators from any liability arising out of any death, injury, damage, loss, claim, costs, demands, or expense which I may suffer directly or indirectly in connection with my participation in any NSC activity whether or not caused by the negligence of the NSC, its Committee, officers or trip coordinators.
